PASTOR'S NOTE

Dear friends, as we commemorate the entrance of Jesus in Jerusalem and meditate on the passion of Our Lord, we need to be reminded that Palm Sunday for Christians was not a sad day. In fact it was the day when those who would become Christians at Easter were making their solemn public profession of faith and received the palm of victory, a very meaningful sign that was reminding that becoming a Christian most likely would end up in martyrdom. Christians then celebrated with joy this day ideally entering into Jerusalem with Jesus in order to be introduced with him to the heavenly Jerusalem of heaven. This year we have a special circumstance that is that the eve of the Jewish Passover coincides with our Good Friday. This is what happened exactly the year of the Passion and Resurrection of the Lord. Jesus anticipated the Passover meal to Thursday in order to become the immolated lamb that was supposed to be slaughtered to be consumed on Friday night. This year the Jewish and Christian calendar match perfectly as it happen when Jesus was crucified. I find in this some motivation to live this years' Easter Triduum in a special way. In order to experience this Easter more in the full, this year we are offering the possibility to live an all-night Vigil for those who
