Introduction

We are a resurrection people who follow the Risen Christ. The empty tomb is a sign of hope. Death does not have the final word. If our life with Christ can overcome even the seeming finality of death, God's mercy can also overcome all pain and sorrow. If we bind ourselves to Christ, earthly suffering will be vanquished. We can rejoice and be glad with hearts full of peace!

Weekly Stewardship Thought

As Easter people, we are called to be witnesses of Christ's victory over sin and death. We embody this message and bring the light of the resurrection into our daily lives through acts of kindness, compassion, and generosity towards others, not just out of duty, but as a celebration of new life.

Stewardship of Treasure

Offerings Last Weekend:	$4,186.00
Offerings to Date:	$48,165.00
Target Offerings (Week 13):	$49,400.00
Poor Box Last Weekend:	$324.00

Stewardship In Action

We would like to express our sincere gratitude to those parishioners who worked to enhance the liturgies for Holy Week. In particular, we would like to thank Manuel DeSilva & Family, Fernanda Pacheco, Connie Frias and others who beautifully decorated both inside and outside of the church, as well as Bruce Fox and our Song Leaders for the lovely music, and our Mass ministry volunteers, including Communion Ministers, Lectors, Altar Servers, Hospitality Ministers and Gift Bearers, and to everyone who contributed towards the purchase of Easter flowers in memory of your loved ones. Your kind stewardship of our parish is truly appreciated!

Pastor's Easter Reflection

My dear Parishioners of St. Patrick's Church,

A joyful and blessed Easter to you all!

Today, the Church rejoices with one voice: Jesus is risen, Alleluia! The tomb is empty, and our hearts are full of gladness because the Lord has conquered sin and death. This is the day of our hope, the day of new life, and the day when God reminds us that His love is stronger than every sorrow and every fear.

St. Paul of the Cross, the founder of the Passionists, taught that "Easter is the ultimate triumph of God's love, where the suffering of the Cross is transformed into resurrection glory." He also emphasized that meditating on Christ's passion brings resurrection hope, urging believers to die to self to share in His new life and divine love.

As your pastor, I wish to assure each one of you that the Risen Lord walks with us in every moment of life, in our joys and in our sorrows, in our hopes and in our struggles, in our family concerns, in our silent prayers, and even in the crosses that we carry. Easter tells us that no darkness lasts forever, because Christ is our light. The Paschal Candle reminds us of this, and that the Risen Christ is the "Light of the World."

May the joy of the Easter Resurrection renew our faith, bring peace into our homes, heal what is wounded, and strengthen the bonds of love in our parish family life. Let us continue to walk together as people of great hope, witnessing by our lives that Christ is truly risen and alive among us.

May the blessings of the Risen Lord remain with you and your loved ones always.

Once again, Happy Easter, and may Christ's peace fill your hearts and the whole world. Alleluia!

In the Risen Christ,

Rev. Fr. Vivien L. Nuera, CP

Holy Land Collection

The annual worldwide collection for the Holy Land was taken up on Good Friday which helps support the Church's efforts to minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, offer religious education, and preserve sacred Christian shrines in the Holy Land. Please use the marked envelopes at the church entrance if you wish to contribute. Thank you!

The Bishop's Corner – Easter Greetings

My Dear Fellow-Catholics,

Christ is risen, Alleluia! Alleluia, He is truly risen!

As Jesus greeted his disciples with the words, "Peace be with you," may that same divine peace dwell richly in your home, your family, and all your relationships. May it guide your thoughts, soften your heart, and inspire you to be an instrument of peace in the world.

May the light of the Risen Lord fill your heart with his perfect peace. In this holy season of Easter, may the victory of Christ over sin and death renew your spirit, calm every fear, and bring reconciliation where there is division.

Through the grace of the Resurrection, may you find hope in every trial, serenity in every storm, and joy that no darkness can overcome.

Let us carry the peace of Christ to others, especially those who are suffering, forgotten, or burdened, so that his love may shine through us.

Praying for a blessed and peaceful Easter for you and for our troubled world!

Bishop Wes

Congratulations, Sean & Jedaiah!

This weekend, we are pleased to welcome two new members into the Church. Sean Whiting makes his Profession of Faith during the Easter Vigil, and Jedaiah Akol, son of Jean & Lydia, receives the Sacrament of Baptism on Easter Sunday. May God bless and guide them both throughout their faith journeys.
