Christina Ronzio holds a bachelor's degree in religious studies, with a minor in church music and worship, from St. Jerome's University, Waterloo (ON), and a master's degree in liturgical studies from St. John's University, Collegeville (MN). Following a brief period as a parish Liturgy Director she served as diocesan Director of Liturgy for London (ON), Cleveland (OH) and Hamilton (ON). She is the author of a variety of articles on liturgy, music, prayer and Christian Initiation. In 2018 she was named the Director of the National Liturgy Office for the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops and the Secretary to the Episcopal Commission for Liturgy and the Sacraments. In addition to her work with the CCCB Christina is presently a member of the leadership teams of the North American Academy of Liturgy (Delegate for Membership) and the Catholic Academy of Liturgy.
