

“We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.”

MATTHEW 2:2

Following Jesus Without a Star to Guide Us

FR. THOMAS M. SANTA, CSSR

“We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage” (Matthew 2:2) describes the spark that sent the Magi on their journey. Something unusual in the sky, interpreted as a sign of something wonderful—in response, they changed direction in their lives and devoted themselves to a completely different path. As wonderful as it might well be, a special star in the heavens is not the ordinary experience of how we learn to follow the Lord or discern his will. If only there could be a sign in God’s universe for each of us, beckoning us forward, clarifying what we need to do, setting down the path that needs to be followed. Perhaps life would be much simpler. Or perhaps not?

Would it truly be less complicated if everything were made clear and certain? Is the manifestation of God’s grace and blessings confined to the straight and narrow, or can we also experience God in the chaos—“in the weeds,” so to speak. Human experience seems to suggest that life is more “gray” than “black and white.” There is real grace in the journey, in making mistakes, even in choosing something that is incomplete. Thankfully, God’s grace does not need perfection to be powerful. We can know and follow God’s will for us in the ordinary moments of day-to-day living. We do not need the extraordinary or the dramatic. ●

Dear St. Theresa's Parishioners,
As the Christmas Octave has just ended, Fr. Dandy and I would like to express our gratitude to all of you for your attendance at our services and celebrations.

Thank you ❤️

We would also like to acknowledge those members of our Parish Community who contributed especially to the beauty and efficiency of these celebrations:

Ms. Yvonne Soares, who thoughtfully took care of ordering the poinsettias.

Mrs. Maria Lurdes and Mr. Edmundo Faria, who every year tirelessly take care of decorating the Senhor Santo Cristo Chapel and the Blessed Sacrament Chapel for Christmas.

The DeSilva Tribe, who perfectly fulfilled the duties of ushers at the Family Mass.

Our CCD mentors, under the guidance of Mrs. Maria Pacheco, who organized the children so that the Family Mass had its proper setting with the Holy Family, kings, shepherds, and angels; as well as Mr. George Alayon, who devoted his time to putting together the Children's Choir for the Family Mass. Many thanks also to the Parents who volunteered their children to be part of this project and who patiently brought them to rehearsals.

Our organists, Jade Fernandes and Nicholas Medeiros; our violinist, Ms. Lindsey Scarth; and our song leaders, Ms. Kerry Judd with her daughter AJ (great debut, AJ!), Ms. Gabriella Medeiros, Mrs. Janice Pearman (with her guitar), and Mr. David Mutch. Please know that without your contributions, our celebrations would not have been the same!

Fr. Dandy and I would also like to personally express our gratitude for the many kind words of greetings and appreciation. Thank you very much!

Have a healthy, safe and happy 2026!

Bishop Wes and Fr. Dandy

FOCUS: Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

The Magi undertook an arduous journey to see Jesus. For us, sometimes even a short trip to Mass can feel like a challenge. Yet the God who set the stars in the sky desires an intimate relationship with each of us. This year is a good time to renew our commitment to grow closer to God. A star revealed Jesus' birth to the Magi; let us ask God to reveal himself to us today.

THE BISHOP'S CORNER

Dear Fellow-Catholics,

As we began a new calendar year, on 1 January we celebrated the 59th World Day of Peace. For his first message on this occasion, Pope Leo chose the theme: "Peace be with you all: towards an 'unarmed and disarming' peace." The Pontiff reflected especially on the fear, growing military spending, and threat of war in our world, inviting all people to embrace an authentic peace rooted in love and justice.

Reflecting on the peace that the risen Christ shared with his disciples, the Holy Father wrote: "Let us open ourselves to peace! Let us welcome it and recognize it, rather than believing it to be impossible and beyond our reach. Peace is more than just a goal; it is a presence and a journey." He highlighted that the path of the Gospel is one of nonviolence and recalled the challenge this posed to Jesus' disciples, who were commanded by the Lord to "put your sword back into its sheath."

Reflecting further on the life of Christ, the Pope noted: "His was an unarmed struggle in the midst of concrete historical, political, and social circumstances." Consequently, he emphasized that Christians today must recognize past complicity in violence and commit themselves to prophetic witness. "May this be one of the fruits of the Jubilee of Hope, which has moved millions of people to rediscover themselves as pilgrims and to begin within themselves that disarmament of heart, mind, and life," concluded the Holy Father.

MEMORIAL FLOWERS FOR CHRISTMAS

We would like to extend our most sincere apologies for an unforeseen and unfortunate error concerning the 2025 Christmas Memorial Flowers pamphlets.

Sadly, the wrong list of names was accidentally used.

Please collect the re-issued and corrected pamphlets at the entrances and communion railings of our Cathedral.

Also, Poinsettias will be available to take home, for anyone interested, on the morning of Monday, January 12th in the Church Hall.

Please stop by and collect a plant for you to enjoy in your home!

SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR THE HOLY SEE:

As a bond of unity and charity with churches throughout the world, Canon Law 1271 annually requires bishops in dioceses worldwide to financially help the apostolic works of the Holy See through a special collection.

In Bermuda, this collection will take place on the weekend of January 17th and 18th. Please use the special envelopes provided for your donation, or make a contribution online.

Thank you for your stewardship!

Dear Padre,

I recently lost my husband of sixty years. I prayed for him through his four-year illness. Since he has died, I cannot pray. Any advice for me?

My heartfelt condolences on your profound loss. When someone we love dies, a part of us dies too. Sometimes, the trauma is so severe that it can even affect our relationship with God.

Psychiatrist Elisabeth Kübler-Ross identified five stages of grief. In the denial stage, some people can't accept the reality of the death. It becomes too much to handle. In the anger stage, some may question their belief in God—especially if their prayer requests (such as, “Please God, if you heal my loved one, I will...”) weren't successful in the bargaining stage. People in the depression stage feel overwhelmed by the reality of the loss and may not always feel like connecting with others—even with God in prayer. However, in the acceptance stage, emotions stabilize, and a person comes to terms with their new reality. Nothing makes up for the absence of a loved one, but people manage to cope and live on.

It's because you loved so deeply that the loss feels so deep. God accepts you completely; God understands how you feel. He wants you to be at peace and live life fully. Our compassionate God yearns to help console you and offer assistance in your healing process until you can embrace him again in prayer. ●

A WORD FROM POPE LEO XIV

Let us resolve to bring [God's] love everywhere, never forgetting that each of our sisters and brothers is a dwelling place of God and that his presence is manifested above all in the little ones, in the poor and the suffering, who ask us to be thoughtful and compassionate Christians.
